Short title

17. This Act is the Education Laws Amendment Act, 1999.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE EDUCATION LAWS AMENDMENT BILL. 1999

This Bill amends the South African Certification Council Act, 1986 (Act No. 85 of 1986), the National Education Policy Act, 1996 (Act No. 27 of 1996), the South African Schools Act, 1996 (Act No. 84 of 1996), and the Employment of Educators Act, 1998 (Act No. 76 of 1998).

South African Certification Council Act, 1986

A need has been identified to amend and supplement the Act by the adjustment of certain definitions and the substitution of four new sections for section 9. This amendment endeavors to identify the functions of the examining body, the certification council and the national Department of Education, with regard to external examinations and to co-ordinate the relationship between these authorities.

National Education Policy Act, 1996

An amendment to section 3 is necessary to simplify the language used in the Act and to ensure that policy declared by the Minister prevails over provincial policy on education.

The amendment to section 5 of the Act replaces "college rectors" with "principals of institutions providing further education and training as defined in the Further Education and Training Act, 1998", the "organised teaching profession" with "trade unions," and "parents" with "governing bodies".

South African Schools Act, 1996

The Act is amended by substituting the definition of an educator. The existing definition is obsolete, as it refers to an educator employed in terms of the repealed Educators Employment Act, 1994. The definition of a school is also amended to refer to the reception year as "grade R(Reception)".

Section 9 of the Act is amended to ensure that the Head of Department is part of the decision-making process when a learner is suspended pending a decision to expel. The Head of Department is responsible for ensuring that the learner exercises his or her right to education, but the current wording makes him or her responsible for education without being part of the decision-making process when a learner is suspended.

A new section is inserted as section 12A to cater for the merger of public schools, and to provide for a process and to deal with the consequences of such a merger.

Section 16 of the Act is amended to empower the Head of Department to close a school temporarily in the case of an emergency, when learners and staff members are endangered or in the case of a real threat of damage to property. The discretion to reopen the school rests with the Head of Department. This amendment is necessary to ensure the safety of learners and staff members, as well as school property, which is not provided for in the current Act.

The amendment to section 21 of the Act empowers a school governing body or council, on application to the Head of Department, to provide for an adult basic education class or centre.

The amendment to section 23 of the Act provides for voting rights for co-opted members in the event of the number of parents in a governing body or council not exceeding the combined total number of other members with voting rights.

Section 29 of the Act is amended to provide that in the case of public schools for learners with special education needs, any member of the governing body may serve as a chairperson, not only, as is the case with public schools, a parent member who is not employed at the public school.

Section 55 of the Act is amended to empower any officer in charge of a deeds office to endorse the title deed regarding the transfer of immovable property to the state, as in the case of schools situated on property with mining rights, the process of registration and the registration authority differ from normal procedures.

Section 60 of the Act is amended to provide clarity on the authority against which a claim for damage or loss at a public school is instituted. The amendment indemnifies the State from liability for any damage or loss caused by contractual liability between the public school and any enterprise or business operated at the school.

Employment of Educators Act, 1998

Section 6 of the Act is amended, as it is required that a specific time frame be identified within which a governing body or council must exercise its right to make recommendations on the appointment and the redeployment of educators. If a governing body or council does not exercise its right within the specific time frame, the employer may appoint an educator without taking into account a recommendation from the governing body or council.

Section 8 of the Act is amended to provide for the temporary transfer of an educator within a province and between two different schools by the Head of Department without the recommendation of a governing body or council. This amendment will ensure that budgets are utilised effectively and that an educator who is in excess to the establishment is redeployed to a post where there is a need for a teacher. It will drastically reduce wastage pertaining to personnel expenditure.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The Department of Education and the State Law Advisers are of the opinion that the procedure determined by sections 73 and 76 of the Constitution should be followed with regard to this Bill. This is an amendment Bill to legislation which falls within the general and further education sector (further education being the higher grades). Schedule 4 to the Constitution prescribes that education other than tertiary education falls within the functional area of concurrent national and provincial legislative competency.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

No additional financial implication is foreseen as a result of this amendment Bill.

DEPARTMENTS/BODIES CONSULTED

The South African Certification Council.

The Bill was sent to all trade unions registered to the Education Labour Relations Council and to the governing body organisations for comment.

The Bill was published in the Government Gazette for public comment.

OFFICIAL TEXT

The English text of this Bill is the official text and the translated Afrikaans version thereof is attached hereto.
